TUTOR PROFILE

LAUREN

APPROACH

Lauren's teaching approach is highly individualized and focused on meeting students at their current level of understanding. She breaks challenging concepts into manageable steps, asks targeted questions to identify gaps in understanding, and adjusts her explanations based on how each student learns best. She emphasizes understanding the reasoning behind a concept rather than simply memorizing procedures, while providing plenty of guided and independent practice. Most importantly, Lauren works to create a supportive environment where students feel comfortable making mistakes, asking questions, and building both their skills and confidence.
